this book looks at the intersection where languages meet where literary studies connect with other domains of knowledge such as translation modern linguistics philosophy of language the teaching of languages and cultural studies authors speak of their experiences in literary translation and discuss texts translated from and into languages such as ancient hebrew and greek german english french polish punjabi paite urdu and hindi they address questions such as the following is it enough for a translator to be fluent in two languages should translators not also know how to read a literary text with its stylistic cultural formal and existential nuances how far can translators go with their creative ideas and where do they draw a line do the hierarchies of languages impact translations the volume will be indispensable for scholars and researchers of translation studies literature philosophy german studies francophone studies and english studies it will also appeal to general readers interested in literary translation in the existential philosophy of etty hillesum meins g s coetsier breaks new ground by demonstrating the jewish existential nature of etty hillesum s spiritual and cultural life in light of the writings of martin buber emmanuel levinas and dietrich bonhoeffer hillesum s diaries and letters written between 1941 and 1943 illustrate her struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the second world war and the shoah by finding god under the rubble of the horrors she rediscovers the divine presence between humankind while taking up responsibility for the other as a way to embrace justice and compassion in a fascinating accessible and thorough study coetsier dispels much of the confusion that assails readers when they are exposed to the bewildering range of christian and jewish influences and other cultural interpretations of her writings the result is a convincing and profound picture of etty hillesum s path to spiritual freedom a definitive international guide to the thought of the most important twentieth century jewish philosopher in his 1923 essay i and thou the philosopher theologian and activist martin buber introduced a philosophy of dialogue that achieved a global interdisciplinary resonance for buber dialogue was more than a conversation dialogue discloses something essential about our orientation and our lives with one another this companion assembles twenty six scholars from a dozen countries to explore buber s international reputation and legacy in education interfaith relations judaism philosophy politics and psychology the result is an essential guide to one of the most influential jewish thinkers of the twentieth century grappling with the place of jewish philosophy at the margin of religious studies robert erlewine examines the work of five jewish philosophers hermann cohen martin buber franz rosenzweig abraham joshua heschel and joseph soloveitchik to bring them into dialogue within the discipline emphasizing the tenuous place of jews in european and particularly german culture erlewine unapologetically contextualizes jewish philosophy as part of the west he teases out the antagonistic and overlapping attempts of jewish thinkers to elucidate the philosophical and cultural meaning of judaism when others sought to deny and even expel jewish influences by reading the canon of jewish philosophy in this new light erlewine offers insight into how jewish thinkers used religion to assert their individuality and modernity
